Commencing as soon as possible to June 28, 2018

Job Posting No: 1718-129e

We are seeking an Educational Assistant to work with a student with special needs. The child responds very well to male support. The role will involve supporting the child with both their studies and some personal care.

Under the direction and supervision of a teacher, and as a member of the students' support team, the Educational Assistant supports the work of the classroom teacher and/or school clinician – making a significant contribution to the work of the school and towards the education of all students.

Responsibilities may include:

- Respond to the needs of students as per student's URIS Medical Plan.
- Be able to document and time medical events as well as follow the URIS Health Plan.
- Communicate positively and clearly with the resource teacher should any situation arise, according to the roles outlined in the URIS Medical Plan.
- Provide general supervision of students with special needs to ensure their safety and the safety of other students around them.
- Assist in keeping students engaged in the range of activities.
- Assist supervising resource teacher and classroom teacher with preparatory work.
- Respond to the needs of students and teachers in a timely and appropriate manner.
- Assist students by explaining, demonstrating, and modeling the skills and attitudes necessary to encourage and support learning as facilitated by the teacher.
- Provide support in everyday student activities and encourage positive student interaction.
- Assist students who require ongoing, long-term support through plans developed specifically for them by an in-school team.

Qualifications:

- Completion of Grade 12.
- Preference will be given to an individual's applicable experience and/or post-secondary education.
- Preference will be given to individuals who have experience working with children with special needs.
- Bilingual (French/English).

Applicants should have the ability to:

- Engage students in activities that promote learning.
- Establish positive and respectful relationships with students.
- Communicate effectively and respectfully with students.
- Interact with staff in a manner that contributes to positive relationships.
- Work collaboratively and cooperatively to support student programming.
- Assist with supervision in school and community settings, which may include assisting students with the resolution of interpersonal conflicts.
